REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Carbondale, Ill., Aug. 21.-The new railroad now being constructed from a point near Thebes, Ill., northeast, is to be extended to Altamont on the Wabash. This new link will be the last to connect the Cotton Belt with the Wabash, which will give the Goulds a direct connection between the Southwest and Chicago, and a short line from the North via St. Louis or Memphis to New Orleans. This connection will also give the Goulds a direct connection between the Southwest and the Atlantic Coast, as the Wabash is now extending to Baltimore and New York.

In the territory traversed by this line in Illino's is a vast coal deposit, The Gould interests have purchased almost all the available land, and it is being opened in several places.

At Zeigler a junction will be made with the Leiter road, and at Altamont this extension of the Cotton Belt will connect with the Wabash. Construction is being pushed rapidly to completion.

FUTURE OF THE CLOVER LEAF. Believed a Big Railroad System Will

Absorb Toledo Line. With Wall street, railroad men generally believe that the Clover Leaf is destined soon to become part of one of the great railroad systems now entering St. Louis, and, if not absorbed by a St. Louis line, that it will be the means by which another great system will enter the city.

The belief that the Toledo, St. Louis and Western, which is the Clover Leaf, will be absorbed by the St. Louis and San Francisco is not so strong as it was a few days co is not so strong as it was a few days ago. The Frisco officials state that they not only do not want that property, but that they could find little use for a traffic arrangement with it, and are not even seeking that. The Vanderbilts are reported as being in the market for the road.

The same time was duplicated yesterday. Second No. 1 departed from Cincinnati at 16:29 a. m., an hour late, and, including a stop at Washington, Ind., to consolidate with first No. 1, the run was made in seven hours and fifteen minutes. Frank Gildersleeve, assistant general passenger agent at St. Louis, states that this is the fastest run ever made between the two cities. B. & O. S-W. Fast Record Run.

No Advance in Grain Rates. No Advance in Grain Rates.

The Western railroad managers have falled in their efforts to advance grain rates, the Santa Fe yesterday having notified the Interstate Commerce Commission that it would continue in effect the rates on grain prior to August 15 from Missouri River points and transmissouri territory. All other lines immediately wired the Commission canceling their advanced tariffs. The rate to Chicago will be 7 cents a hundred pounds; to Missouri River points 5 cents; to Guif ports, 12 cents. The lines of the Northwest have all decided to meet the cuits made by J. J. Hill to Minneapolis and will make corresponding reductions to Chicago. Hill aimed to divert all the grain traffic to Duluth.

White of No. 403 St. Ferdinand, and street, to open a lunch stand of the street. "wienerwurst" type in front of his house Police on Taylor avenue caused general commotion in the neighborhood and resulted in the filing of a remonstrance in Building Commissioner Longfellow's office.

The shed to contain the stand was carted to the spot. It is a very small affair, about the size of a large dry goods box, yet sufficient to cause a stir by no means correspondingly small in proportions. That negroes were in the neighborhood was already cause of general complaint, but that a stand was to be operated which would draw other negroes "from miles around"as one resident of the block put it-was altogether too much.

It was learned that no license had been secured or building permit for the stand issued. At the instance of R. F. Camien, who lives on the west side of Taylor avenue, between St. Ferdinand and North Market, pre-perty owners on the block took action. The remonstrance was drawn up and signed by the following: John Hammann of No. 2426 Taylor avenue; John C. secured or building permit for the stand mann of No. 2426 Taylor avenue; John C. Shiner of No. 4437 North Market street, and forego his intention.

Some times they are noisy. I have heard of a fight or two among them, but never had any direct evidence of it." Mr. Camien said practically the same thing expressing himself as very much against the lunch stand. To allow it, he said, would damage the property values in the vicinity.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S TO GET SITE CHURCH OF REDEEMER SELECTED.

New Episcopal Parish Is Awardet Location at Fashionable King's Highway and Berlin Avenue.

Though a clash with the Church of the Redeemer, Episcopal, is denied, a new Episcopal parish, St. Bartholomew's, is being organized, with the sanction of Bishop Tuttle, to build a church at the corner of King's Highway and Berlin avenue on the site selected by the Redeemer parish. The founder of the new parish is the Reverend Doctor William Russell Scarritt, assistant rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, who will be the first rector. It will start out with a membership of about 200. Speaking of the matter, Doctor Scarritt said vesterday: The new parish will be formed largely of those who are at present not actively connected with other Episcopal parishes of

I have discovered a field already for the worker, and I have been amazed to find how many people there are out here in the West End who are waiting to be asked to identify themselves with some church, "Yesterday I spoke to a man of business and social prominence who lives near the site of the proposed new church, and, tak-ing me into his private office, he said that neither he nor his wife were church people, but had made up their minds to identify themselves with the new church. You may say that in all my visitation in this part of the city, I have always been kindly received, and have yet to experience the first rebuff. I believe the outlook for the new parish is very bright,"

He also denied that there was any intention of interfering with the Church of the Redeemer in its effort to secure a new location. The minister said it was true that Bishop Sheriff Dickmann was ordered yesterday to levy on Stannard's property to satisfy the judgment.

Phelps and Charles Abel, alias "Big Charile," were arrested last year on the charge of operating a confidence game. Abel was tried, found guilty and sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. He appealed to the Supreme Court, and James H. Cronin, member of the House combine, signed the bond for $1.000.

Abel forfeited the bond. When Phelps's case was called, on October 21, 1901, he was not in court, and his bond was declared forfeited. Stannard made, several attempts to have the forfeiture set aside, but yesterday, when informed that Circuit Attorney Folk would not agree to such a proposition and had ordered the Sheriff to levy on the bondsman's property, he agreed to pay the amount next Tuesday. "Doc" Sweeney at first offered to sign Phelps's bond, but was not acceptable to the court. He then deeded his property to Stannard, who signed the bond. location of a church nearer than 1,000 yards from another parish church, it will be neces-A Thirst sary for the Church of the Redeemer sary for the Church of the Redeemer to seek a new site.
